CLAUDE RUEY

Executive President

50 YEARS OF FREEDOM, 50 YEARS OF OPENNESS, 50 YEARS OF FILM

50 years of freedom. Freedom is what has characterised our Festival since its birth. Because it has always been the honour of Visions du Réel, from its beginnings, to be a place of freedom, freedom of speech, freedom of expression and artistic freedom. The Festival presidents heads have never imposed a directive or particular policy on the different successive artistic directors.

We wanted this freedom, and now we assert it; every filmmaker must be able to express their vision of the world, of art, of culture, or even personal intimacy. Of course, free expression does not mean impartiality, or objectivity; on the contrary, it allows subjectivity, the sensibility of every director to be expressed; thankfully, it often provokes a debates or controversy. This asserted freedom to express oneself is also, therefore, the freedom to debate, to challenge each other and to stimulate ideas, for our greatest enrichment.

The freedom experienced at the Festival is certainly not laxity. On the contrary, it is far more of a strong requirement for quality both in terms of form and content. All of the Festival directors have always made a strict selection for each of the films presented. In particular, it is a matter of ensuring the respect of a film's protagonists, as it is so true that these are people acting their own life, unlike actors in fictional film, just as it is a matter of respecting the audience, who must neither be shown contempt nor manipulated.

50 years of openness too, because openness is more than the corollary of freedom. Freedom certainly implies an openness to ideas and the most diverse points of view. But the openness of an international festival is even more than that, it is the call of fresh air, to productions from all over the world. Over nine days, the world comes to Nyon. As I reminded you last year, was it not this Belgian director, a dear friend of the Festival, who reminded us that spending these nine days in Nyon was akin to a magnificent journey? Yes, we have been living this voyage and openness to the world for 50 years.

50 years of film, finally, with the freedom and openness making the magic of the films presented at Nyon. This filmmaking has certainly evolved over the ages, in its form and in its content. Those who experienced the beginnings of the Festival in the 1970s will no doubt remember the particularly political nature of the films presented, following on from May 68, with Homeric debates and disputes into the bargain. This was also the time of an openingup to films from the East, to which Moritz, then Erika de Hadeln, committed without hesitation. With Jean Perret, the evolution was particularly characterised by an opening-up to films that were formally more radical as well as, beyond pure political films, to those that were also more intimate. Then, with Luciano Barisone, we witnessed a synthesis, so to speak, between genres, marked in particular by unusually high ethical requirements. This was also the time that saw, starting with a Festival mainly committed to professionals, the development of a wider opening to the general public; it is true after all, as the director of Swiss Films recently commented in Berlin, that a film is only really a film when it finds an audience! Today, with Emilie Bujès, a new era in artistic terms opened up just a year ago, and while it is still too soon to know where it will take us, it is already promising.

Freedom of expression, openness to the world, and quality films, are what have made Visions du Réel successful for 50 years. And are what will undoubtedly make the Festival successful for the next 50 years!

EMILIE BUJÈS

Artistic Director

Telling what cannot be told; using fragments to account for a 'nurtured' emotion-which is perhaps, truly new and unexpectedthrough a film. In considering this 50th edition and ultimately what could have united the 49 previous ones, one certain and essential element appeared: that of the desperate happiness of discovering a film-be it new or not-capable of sparking an unexpected emotion. In this context, it is difficult not to fall back upon a profoundly connotative vocabulary, to evoke what is ultimately beyond any description. Visions du Réel has been embodied by four Directors doubtlessly inhabited by the quest-and its corollary, the anticipated joy-for cinematographical findings; those that will mark History or, more modestly, human beings. As the 45th edition—which was also the 20th under the current name. Visions du Réel-was resolutely forward-looking, it seemed timely, for the 50th, to invite those who built the history of the Festival, through a selection of emblematic films belonging to their period at the head of the Festival. These nine films will thus capture moments of cinema and history/stories. They will demonstrate how much the Festival has contributed to the writing of film history, in discovering young talents (some of whom have become very established) and in offering a political forum. So it seemed perfectly natural to associate what, maybe, appeared to be missing: episodes of Histoire(s) du cinéma by Jean-Luc Godard, like joyful and fecund interferences, to attest to the special connection between the filmmaker-who grew up in Nyon and lives a few kilometres from the Festival-and Visions du Réel

But let us come back to this quest for films which started with some 3,000 received registrations in order to end in a moment of grace during which everything suddenly makes sense: 169 films—including a great number of world premieres—and as many sensations attesting that documentary filmmaking, in a definition as large and open as possible, is an inspired, determined and major cinematographical language.

EDITORIALS 4

What remains is the joy of welcoming guests partaking in the Ateliers and beginning journeys with them into their work, whether these adopt the form of "mapping fictions" for Tariq Tequia, or films refusing to choose between the poetical and the political for Martina Parenti and Massimo D'Anolfi. These Ateliers, associated with the Maître du Réel, once again enable us to relentlessly assert the spectrum of possibilities and the profusion of these filmmaking styles. Finally, Werner Herzog, adventurer, walker, provocateur, will be at the centre of this 2019 edition, through fourteen films and as many geographical and cinematographical journeys, to Kuwait, Antarctica or Amazonia, with a plethora of animals and capricious creatures, subjected to the scrutiny of the German filmmaker, at times kindly, at times disruptively.

In the embarrassment a thought passed through my head and, since the situation was strange anyway, I told it to her. Together, I said, we shall boil fire and stop fish. Then she looked at me and smiled very delicately, and since she knew that I was someone on foot and therefore unprotected, she understood me. For one splendid, fleeting moment something mellow flowed through my deadly tired body. I said to her, open the window, from these last days onward, I can fly. (Werner Herzog, Of Walking in Ice, 1978)

The International Film Festival Nyon is 50 years old.

FORUM, A NEW SPACE

For its 50th edition, the Village du Réel (Rue des Marchandises, Nyon) will welcome its ever increasing number of guests in a new space called Forum.

This structure in Swiss wood covered with transparent plastic was created by the Geneva-based architect Giona Bierens de Haan. Architect from the École polytechnique fédérale de Lausanne (EPFL), Giona Bierens de Haan has presented his works on national as well as international level such as salons, festivals and institutions: Festival de la Cité (Lausanne, 2016), ArteBa (Buenos Aires, 2018) and Recyclart (Bruxelles, 2017).

NEWS 2019

SPECIAL SECTION: CINQUANTE

On the occasion of the 50th edition of Visions du Réel, the four former Artistic Directors of the Festival, Moritz de Hadeln (Artistic Director from 1969 to 1980), Erika de Hadeln (from 1980 to 1993), Jean Perret (from 1995 to 2010) and Luciano Barisone (from 2011 de 2017), have each proposed films that marked their respective eras and the history of cinema. An opportunity to (re)discover nine great films.

In this same section, episodes of Jean-Luc Godard's Histoire(s) du cinéma are shown after certain screenings, like joyful and fecund interferences.

FILM 50e

For this 50th edition, a retrospectif film consisting of archive footage from the past 50 years has been created by the Swiss filmmaker Mariama Balde. The film will be shown at the Festival's Opening Ceremony and Celebration; a wonderful opportunity to look at the Festival's evolution from 1969 to today.

INDUSTRY À LA MOBILIÈRE

Our main partner, Swiss Mobiliar, is this year welcoming Visions du Réel Industry in its new headquarters at chemin de la Redoute in Nyon; a new venue that will allow the Industry to work even more professionally and productively.

The event will take place at the Forum and will start at 16.00. It will be preceded by a round table discussion on "Equality Within Swiss Audiovisual Productions' Technical Crews" organised by the SSFV–Swiss Syndicate for Film and Video in collaboration with SWAN, followed by the signature of the charter at 17.30. HIGHLIGHTS 13

INDUSTRY

With its Industry programme, Visions du Réel provides a space for work, encounters and reflection for documentary professionals: international producers, directors, distributors, international sales, commissioning editors, institutions and festivals.

PRESENTATION OF PROJECTS

For every edition, the Industry selects and promotes films throughout their various stages in their development process, giving filmmakers a platform to present their projects to decision-makers and potential partners.

INDUSTRY TALKS

During the Festival, a series of open conferences and discussions will be proposed to the professionals on the subject of contemporary documentary film. In 2019, the Industry proposes, for the second year in a row, the Forum du Documentaire et de l'Audiovisuel, on the subject of The future of documentary filmmaking in cooperation with FOCAL and Aropa - Association Romande de la Production Audiovisuelle. This will be followed by an apéritif courtesy of Aropa.

NETWORKING

Visions du Réel's Industry proposes various networking actitivies: Meet the Festivals promotes the exchange with programmers from international festivals and Meet the Distributors with national and international distributors. Every evening, from 7 to 11 April, there are Magic Hours, a wonderful opportunity to meet other professionals in a casual atmosphere.

SWITZERLAND MEETS QUÉBEC

Based on Switzerland's existing coproduction treaty with Canada and the new coproduction agreement between Canada and Eurimages, the Industry organises this year a meeting between francophone Quebec and Switzerland. The aim of this meeting is to encourage cooperation, networking, exchange of knowledge and experience. This activity has been made possible thanks to the collaboration with SODEC in Montreal, the National Film Board, the Canadian Embassy in Switzerland and the Quebec Government Office in Berlin.

Visions du Réel and Swiss Mobiliar

A strong partnership

Swiss Mobiliar is proud to support the Visions du Réel film festival as main partner for the eleventh year and is again financing the highest award of the competition, the 'Sesterce d'or la Mobilière for the best feature film of the International Competition'. To commemorate the 50th anniversary of Visions du Réel, our Nyon office will also host the trade part of the Festival, the 'Industry' segment.

Partnering with a local film festival is fully in line with the core values of Swiss Mobiliar, which supports a wide variety of cultural events in Switzerland. We are also extremely active in Western Switzerland, especially in Nyon, where Swiss Mobiliar Life has had its headquarters since 1985. We employ some 400 people there, in our recently renovated building.

Policyholder interests are central to Swiss Mobiliar, just as Visions du Réel's audience is its focal point. We are organised like a mutual company and run our business from a long-term perspective, without any pressure to maximise short-term profits for shareholders. Surplus profits benefit policyholders and employees.

We extend this fairness principle to every aspect of our operations and support only projects and events in line with our values.

Swiss Mobiliar Group

Every third household in Switzerland is insured by Swiss Mobiliar. It is active in all lines of insurance and has an annual premium volume of CHF 3,775 billion (2017). Around 160 agencies and offices nationwide – including 79 largely self-functioning general agencies offering their own claims-handing service – ensure proximity to customers, which now number more than 2 million. Swiss Mobiliar Insurance Company Ltd. has its registered office in Bern, while Swiss Mobiliar Life Insurance Company Ltd. is headquartered in Nyon. The Group also includes Swiss Mobiliar Holding Ltd., Swiss Mobiliar Asset Management Ltd., Swiss Mobiliar Services Ltd., Protekta Legal Protection Insurance Ltd., Protekta Risk-Consulting-Ltd., Mobi 24 Call-Service-Center Ltd. and XpertCenter Ltd. (all headquartered in Bern) as well as Trianon Ltd. (Renens), SC, SwissCaution SA (Nyon) and bexio Ltd. (Rapperswil-Jona).

Swiss Mobiliar has more than 5,000 employees and 342 trainees in its home markets of Switzerland and Liechtenstein. It is Switzerland's oldest non-state insurance company and has operated as a mutual society since it was founded in 1826.
